

Mid-Year Review

Wow this year is flying by, I can't believe I am already planning my Fall and Christmas Events. There have been a lot of changes this year so far. The biggest change was rather unexpected, the purchase of a new home with a MUCH larger studio space. It happened rather quickly, our little girl is growing and almost two now AND the business is growing... Those two things together really had us out growing our old house. We are getting settled now and I am thrilled to have a new studio space that is coming along a little at a time.

I have had a lot of new things going on at KAP (Kristin Aune Photography) and plans for new things before the holiday season (see "What's New" on the right column of this newsletter). Once again thank you to every one of my customers.

Be sure to check my upcoming events below.

What's New

- My new home studio and it is MUCH BIGGER!
- My Online Ordering System made it's debut in January and has made the ordering process much easier.

- Session Albums - you asked for a way to get all of the pictures from your session. They made their debut early this year.

- Backdrops - I have had several additions and hope to add a few more soon.
- New Maternity and Baby Plans

Still to come this year

- Photo Jewelry, I have selected a vendor and ordered a sample. I will be adding an accessory store to my ordering system soon and you will be able to order your beautiful custom piece. In order to get your jewelry before Christmas the deadline is November 22nd!
- Photo Handbags and Accessories. I will be getting samples soon, stay tuned to the blog!
- Blog Contests..... soon!

Baptist Hospital Baby Fair

In May I set up a booth at my first event. It was fun meeting so many new and expectant parents. I hope to do some more events like this in the future.

Did you Know?

...that KAP offers Framing and Albums and can create a custom wall display for your home. If you want a wall collection framed and ready to hang, just ask for a mock-up and a quote for your complete wall display.

...that you can earn a free session through KAP's referral program. Yes, refer a friend who completes a session and you get a $20 credit, and they get a free 8x10. Spread the word.

Upcoming Portrait Events

October - Family Portraits to Benefit Operation Smile

October is Family Portrait Month and KAP is participating in an Operation Smile Professional Photographers of America (PPA) Charity event during the month of October. Book a family session and a portion of your session fee will go to help create a smile for a deserving child. October is a great time to have family portraits done and there are many awesome locations around town to choose from. If you want Family Portraits for your Christmas cards, I encourage you to book a session for this month. Email now to get on the list for this event.

November - Christmas Photos

Get Christmas photos of your child during this month. I will have mini session dates again this year with a different theme. The mini sessions will be for children only. If you want family photos please book an regular session or an October session. Email now to get on the list for this event.

Mom's Club of Smyrna/Laverne Open House

Looking for playgroups for your kids or meeting other stay at home/part-time/work at home Mom's then visit me at the Mom's Club of Smyrna/Laverne Open House - September 11 9:30-1:30 Smyrna Methodist Church. I will be setting up a booth there too so send your friends. We will be having refreshments and prizes (most likely one from KAP too)!! Call or email me for info!
